FRIDAY
April 10, 1953

We had lunch with Pauline and George Vanier. They are going to move into their new Embassy on the Faubourg St. Honoré in a week or two. He has been Ambassador here for nine years and, except for the Papal Nuncio, is the Dean of the Diplomatic Corps and Pauline is the Doyenne. They are absolutely ideal individually and as a couple for this post and I hope the Canadian Government will leave them indefinitely representing it in France.

Freddie Reinhardt came to see me this afternoon about some matters affecting SHAPE. -
